Restaurants

Restaurant-inspired service begins with restaurant experience.

In 1993, Metz was awarded franchise rights from the popular T.G.I. Friday's restaurant chain, a subsidiary of Northeast Restaurant Group, Inc. Since then, the Metz organization has opened eateries throughout Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Our experience with thousands of guests per week enables us to bring restaurant-quality cuisine and service to our foodservice operations in the educational, healthcare and corporate settings. After all, we live it every day.

Overview

Metz Culinary Management was established in 1994 by entrepreneur John C. Metz as a custom dining management service company with a "Guest First" philosophy serving a variety of market segments, higher education, corporate dining, healthcare and independent and public schools. Today, Metz Culinary Management is led by CEO Jeffrey C. Metz. Jeff, a food service veteran himself, who continues his father's legacy. Under Jeff's leadership, Metz Culinary Management currently ranks #13 on Food Management Magazine's list of the Top 50 Management Companies in the United States.

In addition to foodservice, the Metz family operates numerous eateries throughout the east coast including beloved national brands: TGI Friday's, Ruth's Chris Steak House, and Chick-fil-A; plus, two start-up brands: Marlow's Tavern and Lucky's Craft Food and Drinks.

The Metz Philosophy is:

- Provide great food and hospitality using only the freshest ingredients and as much locally sourced foods as possible.
- Motivate employees with opportunities for professional and personal development.
- Serve each student and guest with sincere hospitality.
- Develop partnerships that are sustainable and mutually rewarding.

About Metz Culinary Management/Environmental Services

We are a FAMILY-DRIVEN company that collaborates with its partners to deliver RESTAURANT-INSPIRED hospitality to each and every guest as well as providing Environmental Services keeping facilities and property clean, green and attractive.

Metz Culinary Management was established in 1994 by entrepreneur John C. Metz as a custom dining management service company with a "Guest First" philosophy serving a variety of market segments, higher education, corporate dining, healthcare and independent and public schools. Today, Metz Culinary Management is led by CEO Jeffrey C. Metz. Jeff, a food service veteran himself, who continues his father's legacy. Under Jeff's leadership, Metz Culinary Management currently ranks #16 on Food Management Magazine's list of the Top 50 Management Companies in the United States.

In addition to foodservice, the Metz family operates numerous eateries throughout the east coast including four national brands: TGI Friday's, Ruth's Chris Steak House, Krispy Kreme and Wolfgang Puck Express; plus, three start-up brands: Marlow's Tavern, Lucky's Sporthouse and The Wandering Chef, a state-of-the-art food truck.

The Metz Philosophy is:

- Provide great food and hospitality using only the freshest ingredients and as much locally sourced foods as possible.
- Motivate employees with opportunities for professional and personal development.
- Serve each student and guest with sincere hospitality.
- Develop partnerships that are sustainable and mutually rewarding.
- Create custom designed dining programs that reflect the uniqueness and culture of each client.
